AN ASSASSIN'S WORK.

Mayor Carter Harrison, of Chicago, Shot by a Discharged Policeman.

Record of Deceased—He Was to Have Been Married Next Week.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—A man made his appearance at the residence of Mayor Carter Harrison at eight o'clock this evening, and without warning opened fire upon the Mayor with a revolver, inflicting wounds from which Mr. Harrison died at 8:27 o'clock.

The name of the assassin is Prendergast. He was at one time employed on the Chicago police force, and has been trying for some time to get back on the force. The residence of the late Mayor, at Ashland Boulevard and Jackson street, is surrounded at this hour by an intensely excited mob of people, attracted by the news of the shooting, which spread in the immediate vicinity with great rapidity. Prendergast was taken into custody within a few minutes after he had fired the fatal shot, by a police officer stationed at the corner near the Mayor's residence. The officer showed great presence of mind and before those in the immediate neighborhood could realize the full extent of the tragedy, the prisoner was hurried to a patrol box and, within a few minutes, was on his way to the central police station, where he is now confined under a heavy guard. There is no question that his life would have been taken if he had been allowed to remain near the scene of the crime ten minutes longer. The man's action before the shooting was not such as to attract attention, but his talk and manner since he was put under arrest leave no doubt as to his insanity.

The incidents that led up to the killing show that it was premeditated and deliberately planned. At 7:15 o'clock this evening a man ran up the front steps of Mr. Harrison's residence and rang the bell. Mary Fansen, the servant, answered the bell, and the man outside asked for Mr. Harrison. She said he would have to wait a moment as Mr. Harrison was asleep on the sofa in the parlor, at the same time going back through the hall to call him, leaving the door open. In a moment Mr. Harrison stepped from the parlor to the hall. In an instant the man had drawn a revolver and fired, the shot entering the abdomen. Two more shots rang out an instant later, the first of which entered the Mayor's body under the left arm, penetrating the heart.

Carter Henry Harrison was born in Fayette Co., Kentucky, in February, 1825. He graduated at Yale in 1845. He read law, engaged in farming, travelled for two years in foreign countries, and after receiving his degree from Transylvania law school, Lexington, Ky., settled in Chicago, where he engaged in real estate operations. After the great fire in 1871 he served as County Commissioner, and after returning from a second European journey, in 1874, was elected to Congress as a Democrat by so close a vote that his competitor, who had defeated him in the preceding election, gave notice of a contest. He was re-elected, and when his second term was ended in 1879, was chosen Mayor of Chicago, in which office he was continued for four biennial terms. In 1890 he ran for Mayor of Chicago, as an Independent, against Dewitt C. Cregier, the regular Democratic nominee, and Hampstead Washburn, Republican. The three-cornered fight resulted in the election of the Republican candidate. Again in 1892, notwithstanding the fact that he was generally held responsible for the Democratic defeat of 1890 in this strongly Democratic city, he received the regular nomination of the party for mayor after a memorable fight, backed solely by his own personality. The campaign was one of the most bitter municipal contests on record, and Mayor Harrison held his office as a result of that fight, his majority reaching almost 50,000, being one of the greatest personal triumphs recorded in American politics.

When the news of Mayor Harrison's assassination reached the down-town streets immense crowds gathered around the newspaper buildings, reading the bulletins posted from time to time with eager interest. The building occupied by the Times, of which Mr. Harrison is proprietor, is at this hour the gathering place of the most excited throng, and murmurs against the life of the assassin are heard on every side. A Republican meeting was being held in the interest of the judicial candidates in this county, at the Turner Hall, at 8 this evening, ex-Governor K. J. Oglesby being in the midst of an address when the announcement of the Mayor's death was made. Mayor Harrison's great hold on the people of this city was never better illustrated than it was in the manner in which the announcement of his death was received by this gathering of men, called together to work for his political appointment.

J. V. Farwell, the wealthy dry goods merchant of this city, arose and, in a voice filled with emotion, said: "Another murder to be avenged." The reputation of the man and his manner forbade the thought that he intended to counsel lynching. Nevertheless, the utterance was instantly taken up by the hundreds present and, as if by mutual understanding, they arose in a body and without formal adjournment marched out of the building and headed for the west side, the home of the late magistrate. From all parts of the city bodies of men have been collecting and moving towards the scene of murder and toward the city hall. Wherever the news became known small groups of men, astonished by what they had heard, and as if by common consent started on their way to the City hall, where the murderer was most likely to be confined, or to the Mayor's residence. The common movement at once alarmed the authorities, and all the reserves were massed in the heart of the city. There are grave fears that some outbreak may occur before the night is passed, but despite the excited condition of the steadily increasing crowds, efforts will be made to protect the prisoner from violence, and it seems hardly possible that, if it shall become necessary to remove him from the city, the authorities can be prevented from accomplishing such a coup.

Mayor Carter Henry Harrison had fixed his wedding day for November 7, when he was to have been married to Miss Annie Howard of New Orleans at the home of the bride-elect in that city. It had been the intention of the Mayor to charter a special train from Chicago to New Orleans for himself and party.

Miss Howard, to whom Carter Harrison was to be married, is now in Chicago at the residence of Carter Harrison, jr., whose guest she is. Frank and Harry Howard were in New Orleans when they received news of the shooting. They immediately telegraphed their sister to remain in Chicago. The young men will start for Chicago to-morrow.

SPAIN IN AFRICA.

The Moors Drive the Foreigners Back into Their Forts After Some Fierce Fighting.

MADRID, Oct. 28.—Further details regarding the attack made yesterday by the Rifians at Melilla upon the Spanish troops and workmen have been received. As already stated, the Spaniards were engaged in throwing up earthworks for the defence of the men who will build upon the heights of Sindi. In addition to this, they were building redoubts about Fort Rostro Gordo and Fort Cabrera. While they were thus employed the Rifians began to prepare to give them battle, notwithstanding the fact that the workmen were protected by the Spanish batteries. In the afternoon the Rifians opened fire, which was answered by the Spaniards, the artillery taking part in the fight. The natives fought for a time behind the trenches they had thrown up, but they later attempted to cut off the retreat of the Spaniards. A force of Rifians gathered on the coast, it apparently being their intention to prevent the Spaniards reaching the Melilla citadel, should they attempt to do so. A heavy fire was directed against the attacking natives; but the latter finally compelled the troops and the workmen to withdraw into the forts. The retreat was made in good order. General Margallo commanded at Fort Cabrera and General Ortega at Fort Rostro Gordo. The Spanish gunboat Venadito did good service in shelling the Rifians gathered on the coast. General Margallo is criticized in Madrid for exposing such small bodies of Spaniards to attack by the enemy.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—The Government has decided to ask the opinion of the Supreme court on a series of seven questions, relative to the right of Provincial Legislatures to prohibit the sale, manufacture or importation of intoxicating liquors into their Provinces. The decision of the court will settle a constitutional point whether the Dominion or Provincial bodies have power to legislate on this question.

The Marine department proposes to rigidly enforce the law requiring masters and mates of steam ferry boats, tugs, etc., to possess certificates.

AMERICAN NEWS.

Carter Harrison's Last Welcome.
CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—One hundred mayors of cities and a thousand other municipal officials met in the Music hall in the World's Fair grounds to-day. Ald. Madden, chairman of the reunion committee, called the assembly to order. Mayor Harrison welcomed his brother mayors. Mayor Stewart, of Philadelphia, responded. Among the mayors present were those of Denver, Col.; Fremont, Omaha, Neb., and San Diego, Cal.

Dastardly Work.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The World's Celina, Ohio, special says: Some person in Muncie, Ind., sent Marshal John Woods three smallpox scabs yesterday in a letter. Celina is quarantined against Muncie, and it is thought some one there has tried to spread the disease here in revenge. The letter reads as follows: "We are glad you showed so much kindness toward our sickness in our town. I will send you a scab off my face in my worst stage of smallpox. I will assure you you will have the smallpox in eight or ten days." The post office authorities have taken the matter in hand, and will make an effort to trace the letter to the sender. It passed through many hands before it reached its destination, and the people in Celina are greatly excited.

Silver Declining.
WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 28.—Silver continues to decline, the London price as reported to the treasury department to-day being one-fourth of a penny lower than yesterday, with the tendency downward.

U. S. Minister to Honolulu.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Albert Willis, U. S. Minister to the Hawaiian Islands, accompanied by his wife and son, sailed for Honolulu on the Australia this afternoon. Minister Willis said the policy of the Government towards Hawaii would be announced very soon, probably by the time he reached Honolulu. He is the bearer of definite instructions on the subject. While the minister declined to state what action would be taken by the United States, the inference is drawn that the hopes of the annexationists will not be realized.

Cleveland's Attitude.
PARIS, Oct. 28.—Le Temps commenting upon President Cleveland's attitude upon the silver question, says: By resisting to the uttermost Cleveland will render great service to the business world, and at the same time will help modify the constitutional equilibrium of the United States by transforming the members of his cabinet into quasi-parliamentary leaders. This is the most serious innovation involved in the financial crisis.

STANTON EXPLAINS.

The Removed American Admiral's Statement as to the Saluting of Admiral Mello.

He "Recognized" the Brazilian Flag Which the Insurgent Commander Floated.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The following is Admiral Stanton's explanation as to why he saluted Admiral Mello. It was sent in answer to a message of inquiry and was made public to-day by Secretary Herbert:

"RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 25.

"To the Secretary of the Navy, Washington:

"Before anchoring I saluted the flag of Brazil with twenty-one guns. The salute was returned by the Government fort. After anchoring I received a visit from the aide de camp of Admiral Mello flying the Brazilian flag and returned the said visit. I saluted the Brazilian Admiral. A fleet salute was returned by the same. No call was received from any Brazilian official from the shore. Next day I called upon the Brazilian Admiral and the visit was returned. Mello was the only Brazilian Admiral I saluted. (Signed) STANTON.

Secretary Herbert gave out Admiral Stanton's dispatch for publication, because of an impression that the President had acted hastily in removing the Admiral without having any explanation from him. A telegram of inquiry was sent to Admiral Stanton, when the fact that he had saluted the rebels was received at the Navy department, and the message quoted was in answer to that. Admiral Stanton's defence in the probable court of inquiry and court-martial proceedings is clearly indicated in his dispatch, which says he saluted the Brazilian flag "afloat," and this statement coincides with the belief among a number of naval officers that it was in doing this that he brought so much trouble on himself. Inquiry at the Navy department has been brought to light some matters that are claimed to be precedents for Admiral Stanton's action, and the theory of the officers who believed that the Admiral's unfortunate salute was justified by the circumstances, is given in this way: A commander of a naval vessel of a different nation must either acknowledge the flag floated by another armed vessel of a different nation, or else seize, or attempt to seize, her as a pirate. If Admiral Mello had no authority from any recognized government (and the insurgents have no government) to display the flag that was flying at the peak of his flagship, then, according to the theory, he was an unauthorized armed rover of the seas, and should be considered and treated as a pirate. If he had the right to float the Brazilian flag, then he should have been saluted, and it is further contended in Admiral Stanton's behalf, that, in view of the fact that Admiral Mello could not have done otherwise than pay him the customary courtesy. One of the precedents referred to is the action of Admiral Wells of the U. S. navy at Cadiz, Spain, in capturing a Spanish war vessel manned with insurgents and floating the Spanish flag, and turning her over to the Spanish Government on the ground that she was a piratical craft. The same thing was done at Carthage by a British squadron. Another precedent cited, if it can be called such, is the action of Captain Wiltier, of the U. S. cruiser Boston, in landing troops and recognizing the revolutionists—the present Provisional Government of Hawaii—without authority from the President.

The Salmon Hatchery Stocked—Deputy Labor Commissioner Addresses Vancouver Workmen.

(Special to the Colonist.)

VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 28.—The Trades and Labor Council will write to the Victoria Council, notifying them of the action taken in respect to the Bureau of Labor Statistics bill. A. B. Gray, deputy commissioner, said to the council that by answering all the queries put to them lucidly and satisfactorily, organized labor would have every chance of airing their grievances, that a meeting of delegates would take place shortly in Victoria of all the bodies of organized labor in the Province. The Council gave A. B. Gray a hearty vote of thanks at the conclusion of his satisfactory address.

It has been planned in conjunction with railway officials to hold a fruit growers' convention of the Pacific Northwest in Spokane on the second Wednesday in February, 1894, for the purpose of securing more uniform freight rates on fresh fruit when shipping to local markets over two or more companies' lines, and also to meet with Eastern merchants who will be there to instruct on the best methods of packing and shipping to through markets, and to discuss various points of interest to the fruit growers of the entire Pacific Northwest. The transportation companies will give return tickets for single fare. A. H. B. Macgowan, Secretary of the B. C. Fruit Growers' Association, has received a communication on the subject asking that body to co-operate with the Washington State Board of Agriculture, who are getting up the convention, and send delegates to attend and to suggest subjects for discussion.

A new industry will shortly be started in this city in the form of another soap works. The parties interested are Messrs. C. Ralston, H. Marsden and Weir. The firm will purchase all their material from England direct, and expect to be able to compete successfully with all outside factories.

H. O. Bell-Irving left yesterday for Cochrane, N.W.T., on a short holiday.

A report reached the city yesterday by the steamer Comox that Joe Collett, better known as "Holly Joe," one of the colony of ranchers at Sechart, had been drowned. No confirmation of the report has been received. The plant of the defunct Telegram was shipped over to Nanaimo yesterday for the new paper to be started there.

C. W. Robson was in attendance at the City Hall all day yesterday to hear appeals against the voters' list. There were no appeals to have names struck off but fourteen persons applied to have their names put on. The following is the number of the increases in each ward over last year: Ward 1, 42; Ward 2, 87; Ward 3, 8; Ward 4, 37; Ward 5, 136.

WESTMINSTER.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 28.—A handsome and stylishly dressed gentleman about 30 years of age arrived in the city last night from the East, and took the best quarters in the Guichen hotel. He was decidedly a swell, and "put it on" in great shape. This morning he entered the Bank of Montreal and presented the teller with a draft for $5,000, payable to C. S. Butler, and asked that the sum be placed to his credit. The draft purported to have been issued by the branch at Toronto, and was made out on a genuine form. The teller took the draft and referred it to Mr. Fraser, acting manager. Mr. Fraser, being familiar with the signatures of those authorized to sign cheques, at once pronounced it to be a forgery, and, retaining the draft, had the gentleman shadowed on leaving the bank. Mr. Fraser's next step was to swear out a warrant against Butler, who was subsequently arrested by Chief of Police Huston when about to leave for Vancouver. In order to be sure there was no mistake, Fraser wired the Toronto office, and received a reply a couple of hours later that no such draft had been issued. Butler was brought before the Police Magistrate and remanded until Monday. From the manner in which the swindle was attempted, it has the appearance of an organized scheme to plunder the banks of the Province. Butler's plan evidently was to create confidence in himself and draw a large portion of the money on account. This scheme has been worked successfully in Eastern Canada. The Chief searched Butler after his arrest, and found he had only $5 in his possession. The prisoner took his arrest quietly, and pretended to be surprised when he learned that the draft was a forgery.

A local company is being organized to erect a salmon cannery on Lulu island, within the city limits. The buildings will be erected early in 1894, the intention being to pack next season's run.

The Fraser river salmon hatchery is now stocked to its fullest capacity, and the men who have been engaged in the work of stripping the sockeyes at Morris Creek, Harrison Lake, returned to the city yesterday. They brought with them the last lot of ova, to the number of 1,300,000. The hatchery now contains 6,300,000 ova, all of which reached the building in good condition.

A SUGGESTION.

TO THE EDITOR: The letter of "Boots and Buttons" in your paper yesterday rather anticipated what I had thought of writing you a line about. One of the aldermen yesterday informed me that he had never heard of the usual requisition for police clothing, which is generally presented about this time of the year, hence I am led to believe that the Mayor decided the question without even giving the Council a chance to discuss the question. I think it is at least worth considering. If funds are so very short and clothing is not provided for in the estimates, why not devote the money saved by the curtailment of the force—the salaries of two officers recently dispensed with certainly were estimated—in providing suitable uniforms for at least the men on day watch on the city beats? I ask nothing for the suggestion.

A SOCIETY SUICIDE.

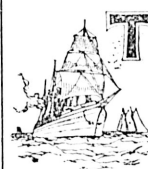

Miss Garland, Daughter of an Ex-Attorney-General, Takes Her Own Life.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The death by her own hand of Miss Daisy Garland, only daughter of the ex-Attorney-General, schooled all Washington to-day. Attractive in appearance and manners in a marked degree, the young lady, because of her prominence during her father's occupancy of a cabinet position, during the former Cleveland administration, and because of her own personal charms, was a well-known and very popular figure in society. This morning she went down to breakfast apparently in her accustomed health and spirits. She devoted part of the morning to arranging details for a theatrical party; but when called for at lunch, about noon, was found dead in her bedroom, shot through the heart by her father's pistol, fired by her own hand.

THE "TACOMA" ARRIVES.

Bringing Word of the Trial of the "Maud S." Now in Progress at Yokohama.

The London "Times" on the Canadian-Australian Line—Repairs to the "Miowera."

THE N. P. R. steamship Tacoma, after a somewhat long and uneventful voyage, reached Victoria from the Orient shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and remained in port until about the same hour last evening, when she proceeded to the Sound. She had good weather across from China, but before arriving at Yokohama her passage was made disagreeable by successive gales. As usual she brought a big cargo, consisting in all of over 2,000 tons, including 600 tons for Victoria, and 100 tons for San Francisco, which she landed here. She also brought 15 cabin, 56 Chinese and 10 Japanese passengers. The cabin passengers were: Lieut. Garvin, U. S. N., Rev. Dr. Nevius, Rev. H. O. Cady, A. McDougall, F. Pratt, F. Carran, T. Dobson, G. Delaney, J. Sampier, J. McDonald, J. Powers, H. Waring, G. Garrel, A. Anderson and C. Alson.

The last named twelve are part of the crew of the Victoria sailing schooner Maud S., which is now in Yokohama. There are yet sixteen members of the crew in the Japanese city, but they will go to sea with the vessel next year. The trial of the schooner for alleged unlawful sealing in Russian territory had just commenced when the Tacoma left Yokohama, and consequently no news of the result was obtainable from those of the crew who arrived home. Lieut. Garvin, of the U.S. navy in Japan, is returning to his home in the Eastern States on sick leave. Rev. Dr. Nevius has been visiting his brother in the Orient, and is returning to his home in Tacoma, and Rev. H. O. Cady is a missionary who has spent seven years in religious duty in the interior of China. He has labored as far inland as the missionaries have yet penetrated, and is now enjoying well earned holidays. Yokohama papers of recent date received by the Tacoma say: "The Naval authorities have decided to exercise for the future a stricter control of the foreign 'poaching' vessels in the waters surrounding the Kurile islands; and, to assist them in their operations, have ordered the various district and village offices in Hokkaido to furnish reports of the movements of foreign 'poaching' vessels on the Hokkaido coast during the period from January to September last. So far as we, (Japan Daily Advertiser), have heard, no report of any foreign vessel having been caught poaching in Japanese waters has yet been received." "Mr. Narikawa, Governor of Miyagi Prefecture, has reported to the Home Office (on October 2) that the sea level in the Gulf of Ise is being gradually lowered. The fishermen, it is said, find great difficulty in pursuing their calling. The phenomenon is said to be due to geological changes."

THE AUSTRALIAN LINE.

A London dispatch of yesterday reads as follows: "The Times announces that the steamer Miowera, which is stranded at the mouth of Honolulu harbor, will be temporarily repaired at that port. The steamer Arawa, now at Sea Island, has been chartered, and will leave Sydney November 15, so that but one voyage between Vancouver and Australia, as a result of the mishap to the Miowera, will be missed. The Arawa can carry 30,000 carcasses of animals in addition to other produce in its freezing chambers. An immediate opportunity is thus afforded for a large trade in meat and dairy produce from Australia, and in salmon and other products from Canada. A further important development is that in future steamers of this line, beginning with the Arawa, will call at Fiji in addition to Honolulu, this fact being greatly due to the efforts of the Governor of Fiji. The Times, in conclusion, says it hopes the decision of the authorities of Fiji, which is a Crown colony, will have weight with the Home Government to give financial support to the Pacific cable."

PACKET LINE TO HONOLULU.

A line of sailing vessels is projected, to do business between Seattle and Honolulu, and the promoters say the first vessel will leave from Seattle on November 20. The H. W. Baker company are establishing the line, and they say that if the sailing vessels develop a good trade they will be replaced by steamers. It is the intention to send from the Sound flour, feed, hay, oats, lime, beer, salmon, and other miscellaneous cargo. At Honolulu the vessels will take on sugar for San Francisco, where they will load merchandise for Seattle. It is thought that three vessels can be employed in this trade. They will be fitted so as to carry a small number of passengers.

THE FINAL VOTE.

Probability of the Sherman Act Repeal Bill Being Disposed of Monday.

Republicans Charged With Partisan-ship in Their Attitude During the Emergency.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The final vote on the question of repeal will probably be taken on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Senator Voorhees made a careful canvass of the situation this morning and came to the conclusion that there would be no chance of disposing of the subject to-day. There are about 25 amendments of which notice has been given. If these are sufficient the roll calls and speeches must be necessarily brief. The Senate galleries were crowded this morning in expectation of lively scenes in the final stages of the silver struggle. Most of the Senators were in their seats. Sherman was asked a number of questions regarding the fund created under the resumption act and the law relating to the gold reserve. He admitted the Treasury had not asked for a bond issue, but said Congress must do something to help the Secretary of the Treasury at once. Sherman sent to the clerk's desk an amendment which he had intended offering. It authorizes an issue of 3 per cent. bonds not exceeding $200,000,000, redeemable in three years in coin in denominations of $50 or the multiples thereof.

Gorman criticized Sherman's attitude. The Republicans, he said, held the key to the situation, and the President had been obliged to accept Sherman's conditions. Gorman recalled Sherman's statement published in an interview that unconditional repeal was impossible. Sherman replied that it would have been except for the collapse of the compromise.

Gorman said the Democrats had been obliged to set aside lifelong convictions to meet this emergency in the administration. Had the Republicans shown less partisanship a better bill could be passed. Gorman said he expected further financial trouble for the treasury, but said that the Democratic party was now controlling the entire Government, and would have to assume the responsibility of meeting the impending trouble.

THE FRATERNAL SOCIETIES

A Prominent Odd Fellow Bids Victoria Associates Farewell—Victoria Lodge K. of P. Still Growing.

Social Events of the Coming Week—The "Hoop Drill" by Young Lady Foresters.

THE "society" news" for the week is not prolific. There have been the usual initiations, socials and preparations for future festivities, a record of which will be found below:

I. O. O. F.

Columbia Lodge, No. 2, on Wednesday evening conferred the second and third degrees, respectively, on two brothers. An application for membership was received and took the usual course. Noble Grand Wilby announced that he intended going to Nanaimo to reside, for a time, and tendered his resignation as presiding officer of the lodge; it was laid upon the table. Bro. H. Waller, grand representative, gave a short but interesting sketch of his recent trip to Milwaukee and Chicago, which was listened to with marked attention by the members present, and made some of them, at least, wish that they had been there too. A visiting brother congratulated the team on their efficiency, and said he had never before seen the work so well done. Next Wednesday evening the first and third degrees will be conferred.

Acme lodge, No. 14, celebrates its second anniversary on Monday the 13th ult., at the lodge room on Broad street. An elaborate programme is now in preparation and there will, no doubt, be a good attendance.

K. O. P.

The Pythian lodges of the city have been busy during the past week, Far West and Sunset lodges conferring ranks at their meetings for Victoria lodge, No. 17. The regular weekly meeting of Victoria lodge was held Thursday, with Chancellor Commander Russell presiding, when the ranks of Page and Esquire were conferred on several candidates. Twenty applications were received and a number elected members of the order. The ranks of Page and Esquire will be conferred at the next meeting. The charter of the new lodge will close on November 3, when it is expected No. 17 will have in the neighborhood of 200 members on the roll.

A. O. F.

British Columbia Circle, No. 118, Companions of the Forest, on Monday night, transacted important business. The circle will hold a social and dance on Tuesday, November 14, in Philharmonic hall, and a very interesting programme will then be presented. The main feature of the entertainment will be a "Hoop drill," something never before heard of in Victoria, in which fifteen young ladies will take part, who are now receiving instructions from Mrs. W. Lang, which speaks volumes for the success of the affair. Tickets are now on sale, and can be purchased from members of the committee.

Court Robin Hood met Thursday evening and received the report of their delegate to the District convention. Several candidates were initiated and a number of propositions received.

H. T. O. T.

Victoria Council No. 2 met on Tuesday evening in the Sir William Wallace hall, and had a splendid meeting, notwithstanding the many other meetings and counter attractions in other parts of the city. After the business of the evening was over, the following programme was rendered to the entire satisfaction of all present: Reading, Sister Bernard; recitation, Sister McGregor; song, Brother O'Neil; reading, Brother Mills, and an address on temperance by Brother Ellis. The whole programme was good. It is hoped that the friends of the council and the public generally will not forget the open meeting on Tuesday evening next, when it is expected all will have a good time.

I. O. G. T.

Pride of the Ridge lodge No. 39 met last Thursday evening, when one member was initiated and the usual business gone through. A very well got up programme was then presented, with the following names: Brothers Macdonald, Cooper, McCormick and Hughes, the latter delivering a farewell speech, as he will leave for England next Thursday.

A. O. U. W.

The members of the city lodges are busy arranging for their coming social. The Philharmonic hall has been engaged, and between 200 and 300 are expected to take part in celebrating the fourteenth anniversary of the opening of the first lodge in British Columbia. Grand Master Wolfe was in this city last evening from Nanaimo, and held a conference with the local officers relating to the work of the order in this Province.

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF ST. GEORGE.
Sons and Daughters of St. George will please remember the concert to be held tomorrow evening, at Temperance hall, Pandora street. Some of Victoria's most gifted musicians will take part in the programme, and Professor Hookway will act as accompanist.

Montreal Gazette: Probably the largest mining property transaction of the year was consummated on Saturday last, when Mr. W. R. Elmhurst, of Montreal, sold all his interest in the lands, mining rights, equipment and mining material, comprising "The Lake Girard Mine System," to Mr. Thomas J. Watters, of Ottawa. By this operation Mr. Watters becomes the absolute owner of the largest and most valuable area of mica deposits and proved properties known to be held by any single individual on this continent. The development of the series of deposits in question has been steadily continued during the past three years, and the conditions of the various properties are such, that with a renewal of the demand for mica, which will doubtless arise ere long, the output of this mineral, which has been greatly restricted for the past few months, can be enormously increased.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

Half-Yearly Meeting—The President's Statement—Dividend of One Per Cent. on Guaranteed Stock.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The attendance at the Grand Trunk half-yearly meeting was quite as large as usual, and the proceedings on the whole passed off smoothly, although a lively incident occurred at the close in connection with the appointment of the auditor. Sir Henry Tyler, who presided, moved the adoption of the report in a speech of some length. After denying that Mr. Vanderbilt's purchase of an interest in the Delaware road would injure the Grand Trunk traffic, he said that the directors were bitterly disappointed at the result of the company's working during the past half year. Everything went against them, and under all the circumstances the directors were agreeably surprised to find themselves able to pay a dividend of one per cent. on the guaranteed stock. He described in detail his recent journey over the company's system, and concluded by expressing the belief that they might fairly hope for better results during the current half year of the World's Fair. Traffic was fairly satisfactory, and there was ground for hope that the Government would next year remit the coal duties which had been imposed in the east of the Dominion.

After a desultory discussion, in which the shareholders urged more stringent economy, the report and accounts were unanimously passed.

Mr. Household, who was two years ago elected auditor, complained that in consequence of Lord Claude Hamilton's bitter attack on him at the last meeting he had been ousted from his position by the board. He said he had issued a writ against Lord Claude Hamilton.

Sir Henry Tyler explained that Lord Claude Hamilton had just left the meeting to keep another appointment, and that only two days ago the board had appointed Mr. Whitney instead of Mr. Household owing to statements made and with the concurrence of a large majority of the shareholders.

This explanation was not well received by the meeting, and a scene of much confusion ensued when Sir Henry Tyler put the resolution confirming Mr. Whitney's appointment and declared it carried. The meeting broke up in disorder, many of the shareholders present hissing and groaning and shouting "resign."

SOUTHERN REPUBLICS.

Chilian Naval Officers on the Admiral Stanton-Mello Incident.

Riotous Demonstrations in Lima, Peru.—Cacerists Fire Upon Government Supporters.

VALPARAISO, Oct. 28.—Much sympathy is expressed by officials of the Chilean navy for acting Rear-Admiral Stanton. They like the friendly spirit he showed in saluting Admiral Mello, and are sorry he has been detached for it. It is regarded in official circles here as highly probable that Argentina, Uruguay, Chili and Paraguay will recognize the Provisional Government set up by Admiral Mello at Desterro, and the hope is generally expressed that the United States will adopt the same course.

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 28.—The city was thrown into alarm last night, and the performances in the theatres suspended by order of the authorities. In the chief square of the city a riot had been started by a body of Cacerists, who were soon firing off their revolvers in a reckless manner. The mob was dispersed without much trouble, however, and the Home Minister, Prefect and Chief of Police, patrolled the city in person far into night. A strict order was given the police to prevent a repetition of the riot, but it broke out again this afternoon with renewed force, the Cacerists, from the balcony of the municipal buildings, firing upon a body of men below who were cheering for Pierola and Congress. One of the men fired upon was instantly killed, and several others were wounded. The shots were answered by the party attacked, and a crowd quickly gathered. Banks and stores in the neighborhood were quickly closed by their owners. The military, however, were promptly on the spot, and the cavalry soon cleared the square. All was quiet again by 5 o'clock, and the cavalry men made arrangements to patrol the city all night. The home minister and minister of war are visiting all parts of the city to see orders for the prevention of further riots are strictly carried out.

STOCKS IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Stock Exchange to-day opened with a perfect rush to buy stocks, despite a sudden drop of nearly four points in National Cordage. This stock was unfavorably affected by the report of the receivers, which was looked upon as disappointing, although it is to be remembered that the statement covers the operations of the company up to June 30 last only. The stock afterwards rallied to 27½ and closed at 26½. In the general list the net advance for the day was equal to 1/16 of 2½ per cent., St. Paul leading. The dealings were so well distributed and the improvement so general, however, that it is unnecessary to select any particular group for special comment. After the first hour the traders were disposed to take profits, and a reaction of 1/16 ensued, New England scoring the greatest loss, but the appearance of the bank statement with its enormous gain in reserves was the signal for fresh buying, and the result was a strong and active closing. Buying orders for out-of-town accounts are more numerous than for a long time. The prospect of the immediate repeal of the Sherman silver law is, of course, the underlying cause for the improvement, and Wall Street is disposed to discount the event. While many of the "bears" have covered the outstanding "short" interest is still heavy. The bank statement attracted much attention, showing, as it did, that the releases of currency from the interior during the week have been far greater than anticipated. The bank now holds $48,787,475 in excess of the twenty-five per cent. required by law, against $3,893,675 last year. The sales were 239,210 shares. Closing bids: Atchison & Santa Fe, 22½; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, 87½; Canada Southern, 52½; Canadian Pacific, 73½; Central Pacific, 21; C. C. & St. Louis, 37½; Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, 17½; Erie, 15½; Wells, Fargo, 125; Lake Shore, 127½; Missouri Pacific, 49½; New York Central, 103½; North American, 55; Northern Pacific, 7½; do. preferred, 24½; Northwestern, 106½; Oregon Navigation, 25; Oregon Improvement, 11½; Pacific Mail, 16½.

Blacksmiths' Bellows, Anvil and Tools and Carpenters' Tools.

9-Room House (shingle roofed; Stable for 10 horses, with hay loft above; Stone Roothouse, Store Buildings, Dairy, Cow Sheds, etc., etc.

4 Miles (about) Standing Fences, in good order; Corralls, 10 miles barbed wire and staples; about 2,500 Posts on the ground, ready for use, etc., etc.

Small Lot Household Furniture, Stove and Pipes, Crockery, etc., etc.

This Property is within easy distance of many of the most important Gold, Silver and Coal Mines in West Kootenay. The population of this district will increase this year by at least 10,000; the area of farm land is very limited, and from this it may be fairly asserted that beef and all classes of farm produce will find a ready and lucrative market. The soil is the best bottom land, and the locality is one of the few places in the Province where so large a piece of good farm land can be found in one block. A river runs through the property, and rainbow trout are plentiful and afford capital sport. Deer abound in considerable numbers. Bear, Wolf, Coyote and other large game are to be found in the hills. There are two creeks recorded and belonging to the estate, one flows all the year round. Limestone and brick clay are to be had in the valley.

The Cattle are well bred; a much larger herd could be farmed with the place. The bunch grass on the hills in the vicinity covers many thousands of acres, and is available to the few land owners in the valleys. All buildings and fences about the farm are in good order, and farming operations can be gone on with at once; about 180 acres of ploughing have been, so far, provided for this year's work.

The Climate is not severe, the land being about 1,100 feet above sea level; the station was for many years the winter quarters of the H. B. Co.'s pack trains. There is a weekly express in and out. Goods and supplies at wholesale can be procured on order and delivered in 48 hours.

The Title is by grant from the Crown, and is free of all encumbrances. Immediate possession can be given.

Important Railway works are now in progress within moderate distance, and two railway lines have been run to pass close to or through the estate, which can be reached in the spring in three days' journey from Victoria.

The South West Kootenay District, British Columbia, judging from the actual ore products of the mines this winter, is destined in the next year or two to become one of the richest and most important mineral centres in the world. Statistics show, that although the district is in its primary stage, the mines have developed ore veins rich enough to warrant the investment of over a million dollars. When these mines come to be worked systematically, there will be an Influx of Population, which will require beef and farm produce in large quantities. The limited quantity of really good farm land in the district to supply these requirements makes this

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.

We beg to direct the attention of our readers to the advertisements in another column notifying the men of business and those engaged in the different industries that the Hon. Mr. Foster and the Hon. Mr. Angers will meet their representatives in the Board of Trade rooms on Tuesday forenoon, and address a meeting in the Victoria theatre on the evening of the same day. Both the conference and the meeting will be well worth attending. We trust that a large number of the citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity of discussing tariff matters with the Ministers and hearing what they have to say about the policy of the Government generally. Such chances seldom occur, and it is well to make the most of them when they do happen.

UNACCOUNTABLE APATHY.

Are the streets of the city to be permitted to become unsafe? What have the police been about that they have not arrested some of the ruffians who have held up and attempted to rob peaceable pedestrians? Is the lessening of the police force to be made an excuse for the inactivity and apathy of the policemen who are employed and paid for protecting life and property? We trust that the City Council will not permit this disgrace to be added to the many abuses which the citizens of Victoria are expected to tolerate. Are they to be forced to arm themselves and to take the protection of life and property into their own hands? It would appear so. If the citizens are driven to this, it is hard to tell what may happen. Accidents are sure to occur and mischief to be done, if angry and alarmed citizens find it necessary to carry revolvers when business or pleasure requires them to be on the streets after dark. It is time that both the police and the City Councillors woke up and took measures to ensure the safety of those walking the streets at all hours, night as well as day.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

There are many surmises as to the nature of the new American tariff bill, the draft of which is said to be in the hands of the President. The only thing that appears certain is that the changes that are proposed are all in the direction of free trade. Customs duties are not to be done away with, and industries are not to be deprived of all the protection they have for some time enjoyed. The new tariff will be very far indeed from being a free trade tariff. This much appears certain.

It is generally agreed that there is to be a very considerable enlargement of the free list. What can be fairly considered the raw materials of manufacture will be placed on that list. It is reported that the duties will be taken off wool, coal, iron ore, and lumber, and that the duties on iron, steel and glass will be considerably cut down. There will be an increase of the taxes on spirits, wine, beer, and perhaps tobacco. There is talk of an income tax or an inheritance tax to make up for the loss to the revenue from the abolition of some customs duties and the lowering of others. There is, however, nothing certain about the matter as yet. The draft bill may be very different from what it is reported to be, and even if the reports are tolerably accurate, there is no certainty that it will be accepted by Congress. In fact it is morally certain that it will undergo many changes in its passage through the Legislature. There will be a bitter fight in Congress over the tariff bill. The battle in the Senate over the repeal bill is child's play to what the contest over the tariff will be.

THE HOOPER CASE.

The proceedings in the Hooper case have been interesting. The medical men who made the post mortem examination testified that the body of Mrs. Hooper was in a healthy condition, and that there was no indication that she died of disease of any kind. No trace of poison was found. This, they said, was quite consistent with her being poisoned by prussic acid, which is exceedingly volatile, and leaves no trace if the examination does not take place almost immediately after death.

Miss Stapley, to whom Hooper had been paying attention, and to whom it turns out he was engaged to be married, gave very clear and apparently unreserved testimony. She had seen a good deal of Hooper between the 10th and the 24th of September. He had not told her that his wife was alive. On the contrary he informed her that she died at Lille, in France, and produced a cutting from a newspaper to convince her that what he said was true. In fact she had not the remotest suspicion that Hooper's wife was at the time alive. The verdict of the coroner's jury has already appeared in our columns. It is an open one.

The preliminary inquiry is now going on in Joliette, in the Province of Quebec. It is, as may be supposed, exciting great interest in that Province and elsewhere. The principal witness examined, so far, was the mother of the dead woman. Her testimony, as far as it went, was entirely favorable to Hooper. She was considerably badgered by the counsel for the prosecution, but though the old lady became exceedingly indignant her testimony was not shaken in the least. She evidently likes Hooper, and thinks well of him, and was not at all backward in giving expression to her feelings. Hooper's lawyers express themselves confident of being able to show that he is an innocent man, and that the circumstances which have been interpreted to tell against him can be easily and satisfactorily explained.

Complaints have been made that the newspapers have commented altogether too freely on the case. The newspapers say that they have done little more than publish the evidence publicly given. This, as far as we have seen, has been the case. To a certain extent, every notable criminal in these days must be tried by newspaper, for those who read the proceedings of the trials in the courts cannot help forming an opinion, one way or the other; but in this Hooper case, beyond stating the facts that have been elicited by the examination of witnesses, nothing has been done to prejudice the public against the accused man.

AMERICANS IN CANADA.

The New York Sun has of late years taken a lively interest in Canadian affairs. It is an outspoken advocate of annexation. When attempts were being made to negotiate a reciprocity treaty between Canada and the United States, the Sun maintained that the only way by which Canadians could expect to gain any trade advantages from the United States was to sever their connection with Great Britain and to unite politically with the Great Republic. Political union, it contended, must precede commercial union.

In taking this stand the Sun, without intending it, did good service to Canada. It showed Canadians the price they would have to pay for unrestricted reciprocity. They saw that before they could obtain unlimited free trade with the United States, they would have to give up both their connection with Great Britain and their political independence. As soon as the people of Canada were convinced that these were the only conditions on which free trade with the United States could be obtained, unrestricted reciprocity became a dead issue, and the hopes of the annexationists on the northern side of the national boundary line were killed.

But the New York Sun, clever as it is, did not learn the lesson which the sudden death of unrestricted reciprocity in Canada was calculated to convey. Its belief in the immense superiority of the United States over Canada in every respect is so strong that it cannot be convinced that Canadians, as a people, are not longing for an opportunity to become United States citizens. Cherishing this conviction, the Sun is amazed to find that there are Americans who seriously contemplate emigrating from the United States to Canada and divesting themselves of their United States citizenship becoming subjects of Queen Victoria. It evidently believes that if Americans do take up their residence in Canada it is with the intention of becoming in that politically benighted land, missionaries of republicanism. This is what it says on this subject in a late issue:

We cannot prophesy, but Canada must be freed from British domination and annexed to the United States by consent of its people. We cannot say that, if we keep on thinking, we will not go so far as to urge Americans to settle in Canada. Lord Aberdeen and the Dominion Government, and the Canadian Pacific railroad, and Mr. L. O. Armstrong, who is lecturing in Michigan, want Americans to take up Canadian land. Guess we will consider the subject. We do not suppose the Canadians are so thick-witted as to believe that Americans will be content to live long under the British Government, or will feel like taking the oath of allegiance to George the Third's grand-daughter, who lives most of the time in Balmoral Castle, Scotland, and holds court in Windsor Castle, England, and takes a jaunt occasionally to the Isle of Wight, and has a royal heir in the Prince of Wales, whose eldest son is the Duke of York. These foreign royalties won't do for the American continent.

Whether the Americans who settle in Canada are thick-witted or not, it is certain that they make very good neighbors. They do not waste their time in preaching republicanism, and they regard with very great indulgence the "foreign royalties" that vex the patriotic soul of the New York journalist. Some of them carry their preference for British institutions so far that they become the naturalized subjects of Queen Victoria. When they do this they do not feel sorry for having taken the oath of allegiance to "George the Third's grand daughter," or bother their heads about prices and royal residences, for they find that under the British Constitution the people have more power and can exercise it more directly and more freely than they can in the Republic of the United States of America. They discover, to their surprise that monarchical institutions in Canada are really more democratic than republican institutions in the United States. As far as the government of the country is concerned, the Americans who settle among us are to all appearance quite contented. They certainly do not become preachers of republicanism, for the very simple reason that they have all the freedom they want, and all the political power they care to exercise. So far from becoming radicals, they are conservative in their tendencies, and, with but few exceptions, poll their votes for the Conservative candidates. This is why loyal Canadians are glad to see Americans settling in the country. The great majority of them make intelligent, peaceable, law-abiding citizens, who are delighted to be in a country where law is respected and Judge Lynch unknown.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

The Nicaragua Canal project is not yet dead in the United States. Mr. Dolittle has a bill before Congress to authorize the appointment of a Congressional committee to visit the Nicaragua Canal and to make a full report upon everything of interest connected with the undertaking. It is not likely that the bill will pass, for a majority of the House of Representatives appear to have conceived a strong prejudice against the canal and those who are promoting the work. This is to be regretted, for the canal would, without doubt, be of the greatest benefit to the whole continent of North America and to the world at large.

It may be that Congress is deterred from moving in the matter because of the unsettled state of the country through which the canal is to be constructed. Like nearly all the small republics of America, North and South, Nicaragua is in a state of chronic unrest. Its Government is hardly ever strong enough to compel respect, and revolutions are continually occurring. Just now the country is in a ferment. The Government has—or professes to have—discovered a conspiracy against it in the capital, with ramifications extending through all parts of the country. Arrests have been made in Leon and elsewhere, and prominent citizens have been thrown into prison. "The Conservatives, Progressives and Clericals are all united against the Government just now, and the feeling against the administration is at a high pitch." The President has been granted extraordinary powers by Congress to deal with malcontents, and is also invested with power to levy forced loans. The country is embarrassed financially, and no one is sure that the Government will not one of these fine mornings be violently overturned.

It is not likely that prudent men, either in a corporate capacity or as individuals, will invest money in a canal running through a country that is in such an unquiet and disorderly condition as Nicaragua. A revolutionary party might any day make the canal un navigable for months, and might in its madness destroy in an hour, property that it would take millions to replace. The country through which a ship canal connecting the Atlantic with the Pacific is constructed must be under the rule of a Government which is both stable and strong. This, it appears to us, is an indispensable condition. But there is no sign of Nicaragua ever having such a Government. Neither is it likely that its inhabitants will ever voluntarily place themselves under the protection of a Government wise enough to make good laws and strong enough to enforce them when made.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Growth of KASLO this year has been unprecedented in the history of British Columbia.

In one year the Forest Growth has been replaced by streets lined with substantial buildings.

The population has increased in one year from 300 to 3,000, and is being added to at the rate of nearly 100 per day.

The immediate construction of the KASLO - SLOCAN RAILROAD will cause development that will increase the population this year to twice 3,000.

It is the supply point and outlet for the now famous mines of the Slocan, ore from which has been shipped via Kaslo all winter.

THE CITY.

The police are looking for a boat which has been stolen from the C.P.N. Co.'s inner wharf.

The Victoria lawn tennis club had a pleasant smoking concert at the Clarence yesterday evening.

At to-morrow night's regular meeting of the City Council, Ald. Styles will move a resolution asking the Dominion Government for the immediate removal of the Beacon Hill park magazine.

W. H. BERTRAND, who was arrested for stealing his employer's coat and vest, was convicted in the Police court yesterday and sentenced to four months' imprisonment with hard labor.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeeves, Work Estate, was invaded Friday evening by a numerous party of young people, who came fully prepared to enjoy a pleasant night—and were not disappointed.

A COUPLE of ponies and a carriage and harness, the property of J. A. Virtue, were disposed of by raffia at the Oak Bay hotel last evening. The highest throws made were for J. S. Bowker and M. Powers, who tied at 40.

The British Columbia Toilet and Towel Supply Co., of Vancouver, have established a branch in this city. Their mission is to provide toilet requisites in stores and offices, charging a monthly rental of $1 for the conveniences supplied.

It was learned late last night that there would be no adjournment of the gun drill inspection of the Garrison Artillery by Lieut.-Col. Peters, D.A.G., therefore No. 3 company will be examined to-morrow night, No. 1 on Tuesday and No. 2 on Wednesday, at 8 o'clock sharp.

ARRANGEMENTS are being perfected by the ladies of St. James' church for a lecture in St. James' hall on the evening of Wednesday, November 8. The lecturer will be Rev. Mr. Cooper, of Northfield, and the subject "A Day in London," handsomely illustrated with the aid of stereoscopic apparatus. The proceeds are for the parsonage fund.

MESSRS. Schultz & Morphy, barristers and solicitors, have established themselves at 49 Langley street, where they will no doubt soon have plenty of business to occupy their attention. Both members of the firm are active, ambitious and well-known. Mr. Morphy has for some time past been connected with the office of Belyea & Gregory, and his face and figure are familiar in all the courts. He has had successful experience in practice, which will no doubt prove valuable capital to the new firm.

LEE FOOK BOW, who is charged with perjury in connection with his attempt to take his countrywoman, Chumme Yung, into the United States from Victoria, has been brought from San Francisco to Seattle, where he is now in the county jail. He tried to suicide on the way by eating opium, but the attempt was not successful. He had an "opium dream," however, and now states his belief that he has been to heaven and come back again, but he says he is now another person, "just a little boy inside of an old man." Accordingly, he has changed his name to Ten Yue Sang, which he insists he should now be called.

A VERY pleasant event took place at the Esquimalt Hotel, Esquimalt, last evening (Saturday), when the marines of H.M.S. Melpomene held their farewell dinner and concert before leaving for England. During the evening Sergt. Thompson, of H.M.S. Melpomene, was presented with a beautiful black marble eight-day clock, which bore a silver plate containing the following inscription: "Presented to Sergt. Thompson, R.M.A., by the Royal Marines of H.M.S. Melpomene, in token of their esteem and regard." It is not known what H.M.S. Garnet will do; there has been no word yet whether she is to remain on this station or go home to pay out of commission. She was recommissioned at Malta on November 1, 1890, and the crew are getting anxious to know what the Admiralty intends to do with them.

H. M. S. MELPOMENE will take on five hundred tons of coal on Tuesday, and leave for England on Thursday, November 2. She was commissioned at Portsmouth 17th June, 1890. H.M.S. Nympha will, it is expected, leave for the South next Saturday, November 4; her programme says she will call at some twenty-seven ports on her road to Coquimbó, spend her Christmas at "La Union," in Central America, and meet the Admiral in the Royal Arthur at Callao in March. H.M.S. Royal Arthur, accompanied by H.M.S. Champion, will not likely leave until about November 27. They will go to Honolulu, and it is expected that it is the Admiral's intention to go all around the islands in the South Pacific. They will take the lifeboat, which the Royal Arthur brought out from England, to the Pitcairn Islands, it having been presented by Queen Victoria to the natives. It will be about the first time the flagship of this station has made the island trip.

The San Francisco Chronicle, referring to a rumor that an attempt is to be made to raise the United States duty on opium from $12 to $15 a pound, says that though the ostensible motive is to decrease the importation, it is really a move of an opium ring in Victoria who hope by having the duty raised to make it impossible for the regular dealer to compete with the smuggled article. Says the Chronicle: "Already, it is said, a 'sack' of $230,000 has been sent to Washington. This is in the hands of a lobby who are trying to convince Eastern Congressmen that the only way to repress the dreadful traffic is by putting the duty at such a figure as to discourage importation." It goes on to say that since 1880, when the duty was first imposed, legitimate imports decreased from 67,741 pounds to only 51,983 pounds in 1892, though the consumption has enormously increased. The importations into British Columbia at the same time have increased to 126,000 pounds in 1893, the cost being only $6 a pound against $11.25 to $15 in San Francisco. At present smuggled opium is sold openly on the San Francisco market for $13.75 a pound, while tax paid opium brings $18, so that if the duty is raised still higher the legitimate trade will be killed off altogether and smugglers have the whole control of the traffic.

The court martial in session at Esquimalt to hear the charges preferred against Lieut. Masters have not yet concluded the taking of evidence.

A CONCERT was given last night in St. George's hall, under the auspices of the Bricklayers and Masons' Union, No. 2, of B. C. The programme was made up of: Songs, Mr. Wills; songs and dances, Mr. Ferris; song, Mr. Carr; selections, Messrs. Brown, Fisher and Parfitt; songs, Mr. Healy, Mr. Plow and Mr. Cole; song and dance, Mr. Dobson; song, Mr. Craigie; duet, Mrs. Ferris and Mr. Audley. The affair was throughout most enjoyable.

The members of the Land Registry office staff, of Victoria, gave a very enjoyable dinner at the Vienna last evening to Mr. F. H. Tuck and Mr. J. Macdonald, who are about to depart to take charge of the Land Registry office at Kamloops. The following gentlemen sat down to supper: W. Gordon, F. H. Lang, M. G. Phipps, F. Mallandaine, G. Linton, G. Cruickshanks, J. Macdonald, F. H. Tuck, R. B. Punnett, W. Dwyer and George Aikman. After supper several toasts were proposed and answered with great pleasure by the gentlemen present.

ALEXANDER McLEOD, a Hudson Bay Co. pioneer and a native of Greenock, Scotland, died yesterday of consumption at the age of 49. A friend of the deceased visited the COLONIST office yesterday and related a remarkable circumstance in connection with the sad event. Mr. McLeod felt his end approaching weeks ago and had partially decided upon making a trip to California, in the hope of being benefited thereby. He was persuaded that a sea voyage would be madness, and was finally induced to abandon the idea, although he more than once expressed a desire to die and be buried at sea. Last Monday or Tuesday, in reply to a friend's expressed hope that he would soon be up and around again, he remarked, prophetically: "There's no use wishing that. I know I'm going to die, and I believe I will die about next Saturday; if I do, I want to be buried on the very next day—Sunday." According to his wish, the funeral will take place to-day.

The steamer Coquitlam is to be surrendered to the Customs authorities at Port Townsend, and, according to a Vancouver dispatch, was sent over last evening. The Coquitlam, after having been seized for the alleged illegal transfer of sealskins, was returned upon her owners, the Union Steamship Co., giving bonds equal to her value. These bonds were secured by mortgage covering not only the Coquitlam, but other vessels owned by the company, and this mortgage, it is said, has been so serious a hindrance to the financial operations of the company that they have determined to free themselves of it by surrendering the steamer. The appeal against Judge Truitt's decision, confirming the seizure, is now pending. It is separate from the appeal, also now going on, in the case of the sealskins forming the Coquitlam's cargo, and for the release of which other bonds were given. The latter appeal, the Victoria merchants interested say, will not be affected in any way by the action of the vessel's owners.

A HANDSOME trophy, in the shape of a silver punch bowl lined with gold, has just been completed by Davidson Bros., and will be on exhibition for a few days in their window on Government street. It is, as the inscription shows, the gift of A. C. Flumerfelt, the honorary president of the James Bay Athletic Association, as a four-oar challenge cup, and the design is very appropriate. On one side there is engraved a photograph of the club house and boat house, with, to complete the picture, two four-oared boats fully manned and equipped shown in the waters of the bay. The other side is reserved for the names of the winners, the first to appear being those for 1893, the victors in the annual regatta held a short time ago. They are: W. Scott, stroke; E. E. Billingham, No. 3; J. W. Hutchison, No. 2; and W. H. Widderson, bow. Beside the challenge trophy there are the four pewter cups awarded the winning crew as permanent souvenirs of their victory.

PRITCHARD, "the boy preacher," is being liberally written up in the Sound papers, on the strength of his reputed arrest in Des Moines. The Seattle Telegraph relates two of his operations in the neighborhood of Port Townsend a few months ago. In the first of these he fell in with a Leland valley rancher named Daniel Andrews, who having land to sell, and Pritchard representing himself as an intending purchaser, took the "boy" to board with him while the transaction was being fixed up. A day was appointed upon which they should go to Port Townsend to get the papers drawn up, but Pritchard failed to join Andrews at the train as agreed, and was no more seen in the district. He went to Sequim bay, and there impressed a number of religiously disposed people into belief in his fervor in their cause. John Brown, who had land to sell, invited Pritchard to come and live with him while they struck a bargain. Pritchard "bought" 80 acres, on which he said he intended to have a $4,000 house built for his mother, "a wealthy widow in New York." He hired a man to clear the site and dig a well, and also engaged architects to make plans. After many postponements he at last went to Port Angeles with Brown, to have the papers drawn, but disappeared soon after their arrival there.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The Navy Win at Football After a Fine Struggle—Other Matches.

The Association football match which was played on the Hill yesterday was won by the Navy by four goals to two. The Victoria team kicked off down hill, with the sun in their faces. The play was very even for the first ten minutes, when the Victorias scored the first goal. The Navy then began to play well together, being very dangerous several times. Kearney succeeded in getting a goal, putting the teams on even terms. The Victoria team gained another goal just before half time.

On re-starting the Navy seemed as though they meant business, rushing to their opponents' goal, but the goal-keeper played splendidly, saving several times. After ten minutes' play the Navy equalized, by McCready. This was soon followed by a third goal, from Abbott, with a long shot. The Navy still playing well scored their fourth goal through Kearney. They continued to press to the finish, the men playing well together.

COLLEGE V. CHOR.

The match played yesterday between the boys of the Cathedral Choir and the second eleven of Victoria college, after a most even and interesting game, ended in a win for the College by two goals to one. For the College, Gillespie and H. Wilson played a good game at back, while quite the feature of the match was the splendid passing of J. Lawson and D. Hunter in the forward divisions. For the Choir, Nesbitt, Taylor and J. Johnston played a good game and did their best to win. A return will be arranged in the near future.

COLLEGE V. "GARNET."

On Tuesday the first eleven of Victoria College met an eleven of officers from H. M. S. Garnet at Beacon Hill; play to begin at 3 p.m. On Thursday the College will play the Gun Room officers of the Flagship at Beacon Hill.

A CRUSHING DEFEAT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Princeton football team had the leather flying between the Wesleyan men's goal posts so often this afternoon that the first of the Inter-collegiate Association's schedule became tedious. When time was called the men from Nassau had rolled up eighty-two points, and the red and black striped athletes had not even a touch down to their credit.

THE GUE.

CALGARY, Oct. 28.—(Special)—O. Creitchley and O. Schiller played a 1,000 point billiard game for $150 a side here to night. Schiller gave his opponent 200 points handicap and Creitchley won by 100 points.

HERE AND THERE.

In the window of Jones' drug store, Government street, there is on exhibition a splendid display of medals and cups, prizes won by Mr. A. E. Macnaughton, well known in athletic and lacrosse circles all over the Dominion, and now of the Victoria Lacrosse club. There are 62 medals and 4 cups, some of them representing Canadian championship events.

FRIDAY was an off night with the enterprising highwaymen. No one was molested, and the police, who were doubled up on almost all the beats, got trace of no suspicious characters. The heads of the department are now inclined to believe that there may be such a thing as false economy. Yesterday morning Superintendent Shepard had a conference with the Mayor and Police Commissioner Beaven, who, it is understood, after an hour's consideration of the case, announced as his opinion that it might perhaps be well to add one officer to the force—on the first of the coming month. Magistrate Macrae was also consulted during the day, and his endorsement secured for the radical measure proposed. The promptness of the step will no doubt be appreciated by the citizens. Instead of a highway robbery, yesterday's report was of a sealskin burglary, the scene of which was the warehouse of Messrs. Robert Ward & Co., Ltd., on Wharf street. The entrance had been made by prying open the back door leading into the basement with a steel crowbar. Within, the catch of the Walter P. Hall, packed ready for shipment, at once attracted attention, and thieves would doubtless have made a—for them—very satisfactory haul had they not been disturbed. They had about 200 skins packed for convenient removal in a number of salt sacks marked "W. R." and "X," which, with the crowbar, were found near the door when the premises were visited in the morning. A count of the skins shows $2 to have been taken before the thieves, presumably, were frightened away. A reward of $100 is offered for their apprehension and conviction.

Thousands of Dollars

I spent trying to find a cure for Salt Rheum, which I had 13 years. Physicians said they never saw so severe a case. My legs, back and arms were covered by the humor. I was unable to lie down in bed, could not walk without crutches, and had to have my arms, back and legs bandaged twice a day. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon I could see a change. The flesh became more healthy, the sores soon healed, the scales fell off, I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, 2 years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well. S. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford St., Providence, R. I.

OUR NEIGHBORS' NEWS.

Railroad Gazette: Five years ago all the berths on sleepers were made up with feet to the engine, unless the reverse was ordered. To-day nearly all the berths are made up the other way, and it is the exception that the old position is retained.

Kansas City Star: A jury composed entirely of negroes sat in the case of Gabriel Newby, colored, in Justice Barto's court Saturday, and ordered him put under bonds to keep the peace. It is the first time that a jury of colored men ever sat in a case in this city.

Port Angeles Tribune: The duty on opium should be reduced to one or two dollars a pound and a stamp duty placed upon it like on cigars and tobacco. Then there would be no incentive to run the dope into the country, and the government would get a revenue from the stuff.

London Daily News: It is stated at Shanghai, "on excellent authority," that the real reason why none of the Chinese squadron went to Bangkok was that it was found there was not one of the squadron prepared for such a voyage without refitting, the internal condition of the iron-clads and cruisers of China's new navy being very imperfect.

Seattle Post Intelligencer: The shingle men have found some relief from the short supply of cars on the Northern Pacific this year which they had not last year, for since the completion of the Soo line has given the Canadian Pacific a line of its own to Minneapolis and St. Paul it has begun hauling lumber and shingles East. The Canadian Pacific is now absorbing the local rate and furnishing cars to manufacturers on the Lake Shore road.

San Francisco Bulletin: A sample of California maple sugar has been received at the rooms of the State Board of Trade. It comes from Igo, Shasta county, and was made by Edward L. Ballou from the sap of maple trees in the forests of that neighborhood. The sample cake looks and tastes like the best maple sugar from Vermont. Maple sugar has also been made in Nevada county and other localities of Northern California from native trees, but it is said that the trees are usually too few and far between to enable the maple sugar industry to be carried on to advantage in any part of this State.

St. John Telegraph: The attention of philanthropic societies in New York has been directed to the practice of sending newly arrived immigrants from Europe to Baltimore to work on oyster sloops, where they are exposed to every kind of fraud and hardship. In New York, agencies have sub-agents who get $2 for every man they induce to go, these agents making alluring promises to the callow immigrants. Once on board an oyster sloop the laborer soon finds that he is duped and that his escape is practically impossible, for the sloop seldom if ever puts into land before the oyster season is closed, which is not before May, and care is taken that he stay on board. He finds that his first month's wages go to paying for his railroad fare to Baltimore and the commission of the agent that procured for him the "job." The wages of the next month pay for his oil coat, boots, etc., and so on until all the wages promised are swallowed up. At the end he is dismissed penniless. Meantime he is fed on the scantiest food, and beaten if he complains. This is a nice condition of affairs to prevail in a free republic.

Toronto Mail (Supreme Court Report): The next case taken up was that of the ship Oscar and Hattie, a Canadian sealer seized in Behring Sea during the season of 1892. This is an appeal from the Admiralty Court in British Columbia, which condemned the vessel. The Oscar and Hattie left Victoria early in the season for the fishing grounds, and spent the greater part of her time hunting in the neighborhood of Copper Islands. In the month of August she started for her home, Victoria, B.C. On her way she ran short of water, and made for Ats Island to obtain a supply. The captain called at Gatzland harbor, on the north side of the island, which forms part of the southern boundary of Behring Sea. Had the vessel called on the south side she would not have been within prohibited waters at all, but owing to the wind the captain took the other side of the island. Here the vessel was seized by the United States man-of-war Mohican, and afterwards handed over to H.M.S. Melpomene, being finally put in possession of the Collector of Customs at Victoria under seizure. It was held in the petition for condemnation that the vessel was hunting for seals in forbidden waters. She was laden with skins, but it was proved that they were caught outside of Behring Sea, near the Copper Islands. During the hearing of the case, Judge Sedgewick remarked that there was not a scintilla of evidence to show that the vessel called at the Ats Island for anything than proper purposes. Some of the other judges spoke in the same direction. Mr. McCarthy appeared for the owners of the vessel, and Mr. Robinson for the Crown. Judgment was reserved.

THE UNDERTAKER'S ART.

Modern Ideas Require an Extensive Equipment for Its Successful Practice.

Embalming Will Reveal Suspended Life—No Longer Associated With Mutilation.

MORTALITY being an inevitable conclusion, which no cunningly devised elixir has enabled mankind to avoid, science and art have been resorted to to take from the associations connected with death the repulsive aspects which otherwise would crowd out of the memory the more prized recollections of the departed. In this, as in other branches of business, Victoria appears to have kept well abreast of the times—a fact impressed upon a representative of the COLONIST who, calling yesterday upon the pioneer undertaker of the Province, Mr. Chas. Hayward, was kindly shown through that gentleman's extensive and well appointed establishment on Government street.

Such a visit is likely to surprise those of the public who happily have not had experience in this line, for the uninitiated can have little idea that the business calls for so large and varied a stock of requisites for the last offices for the dead as are thus revealed. The caskets, for instance, necessarily kept in this one establishment number between three and four hundred, so many are the styles and shapes in demand—glass, half glass, round, elliptic and square ends; of iron, steel, oak, elm, walnut and other woods, and finished either polished or covered with broadcloths, plushes, velvets and draperies of all shades and colors.

Asked about the substitute for the historic winding-sheet, Mr. Hayward displayed a great collection of the most modern burial robes, including every grade from the simplest and cheapest to the most expensive and most attractive, designed with the happy idea of making up to the fullest extent which the art of man makes possible for the attractions which depart with the spark of life.

Embalming is a subject in which very great public interest is taken, and the newspaper man having by request been shown the embalming plant and instruments, Mr. Hayward explained the process and the effects of the operation.

"It is a pity," he proceeded, "that so much prejudice and misconception exist in the minds of the general public with regard to embalming. There is no reason, save in very rare cases, why the dead should not retain their natural appearance and be preserved from any symptoms of decay for a reasonable period, and if necessary for weeks and months. There is a mistaken idea that this cannot be done without mutilation and the removal of the viscera, and that in the event of trance or suspended animation all chances of restoration or resuscitation are effectually taken away. This is not only incorrect, but the very first act of the embalmer would effectually demonstrate either that life had forever departed, or was only in suspense, and then prompt remedies could be applied.

"Modern embalming consists simply in permeating the human body with a specially prepared preservative solution, and this is done by injecting the vascular system through one of the arteries. The only cutting required is the small incision necessary to expose one of the superficial arteries, and puncturing it sufficiently to admit the point of the injecting instrument. In cases of undoubted death, the arteries are found entirely empty, but in cases of suspended animation the reverse would be the case, and the embalmer, finding the arteries charged with blood, would immediately give the alarm."

John Bull ranges at Chopsido.

PLATFORM AND STAGE.

Re-Opening of The Victoria for the Season With Mrs. Verdenall's "The Laughing Girl."

Other Attractions of the Coming Month—Notes and Gossip of the Footlights.

REALISTIC comedy is without doubt the most popular form of theatrical entertainment, and after a long season of idleness The Victoria will be reopened on Wednesday evening with an attraction of this character which has everywhere been spoken of in terms of praise—Mrs. O. F. Verdenall's "The Laughing Girl." The principals in the cast are Miss Clara Lipman and Mr. Louis Mann. The former will be remembered by Victorians as having scored a most decided hit in Charles Dickens' "Incog" last season; Mr. Mann is also an old friend and favorite. In the words of the New York Herald, speaking of the production of the new comedy in New York on the 4th instant, "the play is a clever American comedy in three acts, with enough human interest in it to keep the attention of the audience throughout, and replete with comical situations—a very funny play."

MISS CLARA LIPMAN.

Describing the play introduced in such complimentary terms, the Herald continues: "The first act opens with the arrival of 'Eb' Sanders, accompanied by his wife and daughter, from England to visit his brother, Josiah Sanders, at his suburban home near New York. There they meet the daughter, Gertrude, Mrs. Holloway, a charming widow, whom Josiah admires, and Professor Hausman. The last, an eccentric musical genius, enacted by Louis Mann, is a difficult character to maintain without exaggeration. The bashful German, absorbed in art and love, makes many laughable mistakes and is in trouble all the while. His grief at the assertions that his love is engaged to his false friend, in the second act, and his effusive joy when at the close of the third he finds the engagement broken, declares his love and is accepted, are strong features in the play. The vivacious Miss Clara Lipman enacts her part of Gertrude Sanders admirably. The society girl given to boxing and fencing is most attractively portrayed. The remainder of the cast is efficient."

"SKIPPED BY THE LIGHT OF THE MOON." There should be another large audience at The Victoria on Friday evening if its size is measured by the quality of the attraction, for on that evening the famous extravaganza, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," will be presented by Fowler & Warrington's comedians, a company well known from one end of the country to the other for the excellent manner in which all their productions are staged. To attempt to relate the plot of "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," or to give a detailed description of the play, would be a waste of space. It has tender bits, moments of broad farce, much that savors to genuine comedy, and a little pantomime used with good results. All these varying elements are cleverly and skilfully utilized, and the effect is a quiet smile and a shout of laughter.

BOOKINGS FOR NOVEMBER.

The November bookings at The Victoria as at present announced are: November 1—"The Laughing Girl." November 3—"Skipped by the Light of the Moon." November 16—C. L. Davis in "Alvin Karpis." November 22—Katie Putnam in "Love Finds a Way." November 23—Madeline Merill in "The Story of a Kiss." November 24—Charles Dickson in "Incog." November 25—Charles Dickson in "Admitted to the Bar." November 28—The Three St. Felix Sisters. "Admitted to the Bar" is no doubt the star attraction of the month. It is Dickson's latest and greatest success, and has only been before the public for about two months, during which it has proved even better from a money making standpoint than the well remembered "Incog."

STAGELAND CHAT.

Alexander Guilman, the great organist, has written a pleasant letter to Mr. F. H. Torrington, referring in the most complimentary terms to the good work being done by the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Charles Dickson scored a triumph in Minneapolis last week when he presented "Admitted to the Bar" at The Grand, receiving an ovation.

Modjeska is making a feature of Portia in "Merchant of Venice," and is accordingly well liked in the character.

Rumor has it that a novelty will be introduced in the amateur production of "Mikado," the role of Nanki po being sung by a baritone.

Mr. T. W. Reamer, banjoist and guitarist, proposes establishing himself in Vancouver early in November.

Hood's and Only Hood's.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Equisetum, Juniper Berries and other well known remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative powers not possessed by other medicines. CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

Strict Regulations Adopted by the Government of Hawaii—Entire Prohibition Contemplated—The Afong Family.

PORT TOWNSEND, Oct. 28.—Special instructions from the Hawaiian Government in relation to Chinese immigration were received at the Consulate to-day. Hereafter all Chinese persons are strictly prohibited from entering Hawaii from any Pacific Coast port, unless their passports shall have first been issued by the Hawaiian Minister at Hongkong, or the Foreign Department of Hawaii. Consul J. G. Swan said to-day that the new regulations were very strict, requiring a special examination of vessels bound to Hawaii to ascertain if the regulations are being violated. From the tone of the instructions it is apparent that the Provisional Government intends to strictly prohibit Chinese immigration in the future. It appears the Government is becoming apprehensive lest the lines of steamers from the Pacific Coast to Australia would be the means of landing large numbers of Chinese in Hawaii.

Consul Swan also received a copy of the correspondence that passed between the Hawaiian Consul-General at San Francisco and the Treasury department last week in relation to the landing of the Afong family. The father is a full-blooded Chinaman and the mother is of French and English extraction. They have three charming, accomplished and educated daughters. The eldest is engaged to marry Capt. Whiting, late commander of the U. S. man-of-war Boston, and a later announcement of the matrimonial engagement of another daughter to the American consul at Honolulu has been made. The Afong family are very wealthy and are the leaders in Hawaiian elite society. A few weeks ago they concluded to visit the World's Fair. The collector of customs at San Francisco was uncertain whether under the law they should be allowed to land, being of Chinese parentage, and wired to the department for instructions. The answer was that the children were natives of Hawaii and the daughters of a Chinese merchant, and were entitled to admission into the United States.

NYE IN LONDON.

Bill Tells His Experience of a Valet and English Lodging Houses.

A Visit to the National Gallery and Westminster Abbey—Going to Windsor.

(Copyright, 1893, by Edgar W. Nye.)
LONDON, Oct. 14.

Hay here is $45 to $50 a ton.

Had I known of it I would have brought some with me. In fact, as many are aware, baled hay is being shipped now to England from America in large quantities owing to the very dry summer and shortness of grass and straw here. But if I could market my North Carolina grass every year at the above prices I could make enough to square me on the expense of trying to raise other crops.

The past week I have been the possessor of a valet. The doctor told me that I did not know how to travel or what to eat and drink in order to keep out of the grave, so he prescribed among other things a valet to travel with me, do chores, give my orders, attend to my washing and ironing and be general all around guide, philosopher and hired man.

I call him Clarence. He is 58 years of age and resembles me very much in appearance. It is rather amusing to see me going about over England accompanied by a manservant resembling me so closely. Elsewhere it would cause laughter, but here it is kindly and even courteously received, but not mirthfully.

Clarence points out various places of interest to me in city or country as we go along. He is not up on art very much, being a self made man who ran short of hair as he finished the job. But he knows this country by heart, and though his English is bad enough to import into America for the use of those who wish to affect the groom of this country he is a good servant and has an appetite that will cut my visit here short by a week.

At present I am at lodgings. Everybody advises you to take lodgings here, and very likely it would be a good thing if we could always know what they were to be. Mine could be a good deal better, for the landlady "has seen better days." Perhaps I need not say any more than that.

However, it is a case where the husband joyfully died about 15 years ago and left his wife a landlady with a quiver in her voice and no idea of keeping house. You see such cases everywhere, but more here perhaps. More people connected by the eyelids with the Established Church die here or lose their jobs and leave witless relatives to cling to worldly people who are on salaries than elsewhere perhaps.

I am sensitive to the cold, and England is cold. People who are used to it, of course, do not mind it, but to dwell with this never dying chill at one's heart, surrounded by a pall of shivers and darkness, and darkness such as to-day pervades my room, and confronted by such a fire as I have, is the kind of thing that makes one beg for death or an early steamer.

My fire is made in an iron scone just big enough to hold a black brick. This brick is coal dust and dirt mixed with tar or New Orleans molasses or something and then compressed. It is as combustible as a Belgian block, and when in its wild fury it turns red and is really in its meridian it is as fiercely hot as a new laid egg.

CLARENCE POINTING OUT PLACES OF INTEREST.

I ask Clarence to stir it up, but he will ask how one can stir a brick that is wedged in the chimney. I put on more overcoats and sit on my feet. They are so chilled that I am most afraid I will take cold sitting on them.

Last Sabbath I attended divine services at Westminster abbey and wore my new clothes made here. There was a slight flutter of pleasure, I fancied, as I passed down the aisle. The clothes are not so loud as some that I was tempted to get. What I wore was a subdued or sort of protested check made in a box plait jacket, with hat of same, trousers half tight fitting—i. e., tight below the knee and very full above—plaid tennis shoes and white "spats."

Westminster abbey has a good choir of singers, who live here in town, and an organ that is paid for. The voice of that organ was very comforting to me, a stranger with sweet memories only for company, and on its velvet mantle of melody my heart rose. I believe in an honest and voiceless prayer.

The service was swallowed up by the mighty galleries, where, in the dusky recesses of the lofty building, the gold and ruby and green sunbeams from the vast and glorious window were straying, but the voices of the singers and the bugles and thunder and flutes of the organ I could not forget.

They were not the same, but they took me back to the time when I used to go and wait all through choir practice in order to go home at last with the young lady organist.

It was so grand, so deep, so memory stirring, that for a moment I forgot my costly raiment and was back again in the far west of America, without overgaiters, it is true, but with a heart full of joy and with a small gloved hand on my coat sleeve, where I can feel it yet.

So I went after service to tell the pastor how much I was pleased with his choir, etc., but he was gone.

Westminster abbey is where the Queen was crowned fifty odd years ago and has never since its erection or consecration given a mush and milk sociable.

Yesterday I visited the National gallery because it was the day when artists come to make copies of the old masters. There you see old and gray artists peering away at copies of Rubens, and young and pretty girl artists—prettier than any of the pictures they are painting—and all at work regardless of passing and curious people. They are all wrapped up in their art.

I watched one young lady over her shoulder while she painted a sunset—sort of explosion it looked like—in the Turner collection. Then I asked her what price she was going to put on it, but she called an attendant, who arrested me and confined me in the Hogarth room for half an hour.

IN THE NATIONAL GALLERY.

They are very severe with people who interfere with artists who are working.

The works of Turner have been often criticised, and especially by the unlearned. Artists never speak severely of him, but common people do. For my own part, I do not care for him. Possibly that is because I am unprepared to judge, but I am not afraid to stand up here to-day with my hand on my heart and say that, if you will give me a good, clean tablecloth and move it around a little each meal so that the place where I carve will come on a new spot each time, I'll give you in a week's time a Turner that by touching up a little will make people pop their eyes out.

Speaking of the Hogarth collection, I will say en passant that it was the only room in which no artists were copying. While all the other masters had students and venerable artists clustered about them, Hogarth's disorderly house was still. I am not surprised.

His portrait of himself, by himself, hung where it faced his "Marriage à la Mode" on the opposite wall, and he seemed to say to himself sadly, "Did I devote my inspired brush to such work as that and hope to be loved and copied in coming years?"

Comparatively few Americans are here this year the tradesmen say and account for it on the ground that they are staying at home to visit the great fair, or, as I heard a poetic kind of man say once, "The White City."

But I couldn't tell at a glance whether there were a few more or less here of any kind of people in London than there had been. One or two might be snatched away by death before night, and tomorrow I would not know it. But after I had been here, of course, for a week or two it would be different.

A Frenchman here last week got a frightful and ghastly blow on the head and is still lying at the police hospital unconscious—possibly dying.

The circumstance occurred in this way: He and I were talking about thieves, etc., and he showed me a guard which he wore on his watch. It seemed very ingenious, and I was quite struck with it.

"You like it?" said he.

"Yes, very much."

"Verra well, you shall have eet." And he took it off, and before I could say Jack Robinson he had it on my watch.

I thanked him very profusely and in a way that would have made old man Chesterfield jump off the dock.

"Don't mention it, sare," he said. "It is not necessary. I have just returned from Amerique. I need ze dam sing no longare."

If I run across anything of interest or anything new comes to town, I will draw it off in a letter next week or the week after. I am going to sort of look around here some more on the sub rosa, q. t., in cog., or on the dead, as Spencer would say, and jot down things here and there, after which I am going back to Cork and other towns.

To-morrow I go to Windsor castle to stay a couple of days. Her majesty is not at home.

Nineteen Boxes.

BRANTFORD, Sept. 1.—The EXPOSITOR last week published an article on the case of Archie Rymal of this city, which has caused considerable excitement in Brantford and district. It appears Mr. Rymal has had more than his share of suffering during the past few years, so far was he run down from kidney disease that he had lost the power of his limbs and back. He could only get around by the aid of two crutches, or when assisted by kind hands. His death was daily expected. On the advice of his wife he tried Dodd's Kidney pills, and took in all nineteen boxes. His improvement was marked from the second box. He is now completely cured, and a living testimony of the curative powers of that wonderful remedy.

A Quarter of a Century.

For more than twenty-five years has Hagar's Yellow Oil been sold by druggists, and it has never yet failed to give satisfaction as a household remedy for pain, lameness and soreness of the flesh; for external and internal use in all painful complaints.

The "New Goods" will soon arrive from the "Eastern Markets" for Weiler Bros. (A pleasant surprise to all.)

LARDEAU

NORTHEAST ARM UPPER ARROW LAKE.

The Townsite Company have entered into a contract to build a wharf to deep water at lowest stage, at the foot of Victoria avenue. This will cost about $4000.

The C.P.R. Telegraph Company are building their through line from Revelstoke to Nelson, Nakusp and Kaslo via LARDEAU CITY, where the office for the Lardeau and Fish Creek Districts will be situated. It is expected that this line will be opened in a few weeks.

A Mining Recorder is stationed at LARDEAU—a convenience for the prospectors of this region. Many rich strikes have recently been made on Fish Creek, a few miles from LARDEAU. A steamer calls three times a week at LARDEAU.

The charter for the Lardeau & Kootenay Railroad has its commencement at LARDEAU CITY. This line will undoubtedly be built in the near future, as it is the only route to the famous Lardeau Mines on Trout Lake and the shortest and easiest pass to Kootenay Lake.

Prospectors and capitalists visiting the Lardeau Country will find the best Hotel Accommodation in West Kootenay at LARDEAU CITY. It is the entrance point to the Lardeau, Fish Creek and Duncan River Mines, and will save time, labor and money to prospectors who desire to visit these sections.

LARDEAU CITY has much in its favor. It is affected by the prevailing dullness at present, but its situation is such that it must become an important trading point, and grow into a considerable town.

Investors in West Kootenay should seek particulars about LARDEAU and the District tributary to it. Any information will be furnished upon application to the undersigned.

The Paris Soleil, describing Admiral Avelan's reception at the Town hall in Toulon, says: "The Admiral showed such emotion that the Mayor invited him into a private cabinet and handed him a glass of champagne. The Admiral, still trembling with emotion, spilled a few drops of wine, whereupon Mme. Adam, who happened to be present, cited the French proverb that to spill wine when about to drink was a sign of good luck and a plentiful harvest, and she therefore hailed the incident with joy. The Admiral pressed Mme. Adam's hand, unable to speak, while two great tears trickled down his face and dropped upon his uniform."

A face is to be cut on the moon to resemble the man in the moon, also the name 'Kohlkeat' to be cut on it. THE TARIFF INQUIRY.

Desires of the Province Expressed in an Address From Mainland Boards of Trade.

The Ministers Will Address a Public Meeting in Victoria on Tuesday Evening.

A public meeting has been called, to be held at the Victoria theatre on Tuesday evening, at which Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance, and Hon. A. R. Angers, Minister of Agriculture and Quarantine, will deliver addresses. Mayor Beaven will preside. The Ministers will be at the Board of Trade rooms during the day, from 11 a.m., to meet the representatives of the various manufacturing industries, the trades, and agricultural and other interests, with whom they expect to discuss tariff matters. They will arrive to-day from Vancouver on the Government steamer Quadra. Mr. Foster arrived at Vancouver on Friday night, and Mr. Angers, who had stayed at Agassiz to see the Experimental farm, joined him yesterday. A joint address was presented to the Ministers by the presidents of the Vancouver and Westminster Boards of Trade as follows:

"We the undersigned, in behalf of the Boards of Trade of Vancouver and Westminster, desire to express our satisfaction and pleasure at the opportunity of meeting the Ministers of two such important departments of the Government of Canada, particularly as we have learned through our representative, Mr. Gordon E. Corbould, that one of the express objects of your visit is especially to invite an examination and discussion of tariff questions. With this end in view, joint meetings of the Boards have been held, and we now respectfully present for your consideration the following points in connection with tariff and other matters, which they have had under discussion, as being in their opinion, calculated to promote the best interests of this district, viz.:

"That the duty be taken off wheat to encourage milling, and that the duty on flour be reduced to fifty cents per barrel with a view of modifying the cost of living and inducing immigration, and that Indian corn be placed on free list.

"That, with a view of stimulating an export trade with the Australasian colonies, an export rebate equal to the import duty be allowed on all glass exported in the shape of doors, windows, and other manufactured articles, and also manufactured articles of iron, and the duty on pig iron be reduced from $4 to $1 per ton.

"Inasmuch as owing to our position we have to import all the bar, rod, plate iron and steel, and cast iron and wrought pipe, without any visible sign of the establishment of manufactures of that class of goods, that the duties thereon be materially reduced.

"That the Government secure reciprocity in all natural products of the country, as far as possible, especially in lumber, coal, slate, stone and fish.

"The Boards wish to express their gratification at the action of the Dominion Government in sending one of its number to Australia, and trust that the Government will continue to make every effort toward a modification of tariffs, so as to promote the freest interchange of commodities between the Dominion of Canada and Australasia.

"That in the opinion of this Board the duty on mutton should be reduced to rate equal to the duty on live sheep.

"That as the welfare of this Province is largely dependent on its mines, we would recommend that the duty on mining machinery (not already on the free list) be reduced.

"That the duty on manufactured submarine cables for telegraph and telephone purposes be reduced to a sum equal to that on wire.

"That the duty on agricultural implements be reduced.

"That, inasmuch as that British Columbia, from her position and circumstances, necessarily imports extensively for consumption, and bears a larger proportion of the tariff burdens per capita than any other Province, a general reduction of the tariff would be to her advantage.

"Respecting matters other than those directly affected by the tariff, we beg to bring to your notice the urgent necessity for the early construction of a Trans-Pacific cable, which we understand is already under the consideration of your Government.

"We would call your attention to the fact that a considerable sum is collected annually from vessels entering the port of Vancouver, in the shape of hospital fees, while there is no marine hospital or port doctor provided for sick mariners at this port. The Board would respectfully urge that the Government make provision in this respect as soon as possible. We would also call your attention to the insufficiency of the Customs House staff in Vancouver, which is found a serious detriment to the prompt transaction of the business of the city.

"Owing to the different commercial laws at present existing in the various Provinces of the Dominion, the question of commercial security is seriously affected, the collection of debts most expensive and unsatisfactory, and in view of the constantly increasing intercourse between the Provinces, these Boards are of opinion that the immediate attention of the Government should be directed to introduction of a bankruptcy law which will be applicable for the whole Dominion."

Interviewed at Vancouver by the COLONIST correspondent, the Hon. Mr. Foster said they had a very pleasant trip so far, with nothing to mar the enjoyment. He thought the prospects of British Columbia were most encouraging, and that the Province had a splendid future. He considered that this Province should be benefited by the conferences now being held, for, though the tariff could not be arranged to suit British Columbia alone, it was needless to say that grave consideration would be given to the representation of a Province with such a grand destiny. The iron trade was one upon which the tariff had a most important bearing. All the boards of trade throughout the Dominion asked for changes in the iron duties, and British Columbia had laid particular stress on this point. A plausible suggestion which had been made was to reduce the duty on pig iron to a minimum and to increase the bonus on manufactures from pig iron. This would stimulate manufacturing and eventually turn the attention of mine owners to the production of pig iron. He thought that wheat growing and poultry raising should be carried on extensively in British Columbia. He had heard that, though poultry were raised rather extensively here, feed was imported for them in carloads, but he would not like to say in the East that British Columbia could not raise her own chicken feed. The development of the Province would no doubt encourage the old-time farmers to get out of the rut in which they were working, and extend their operations. The change in this Province had been remarkable in the last ten years, but in the next ten he felt it would be much greater. British Columbia commerce was constantly spreading. He found sugar from this Province selling at Winnipeg in competition with the best from Montreal. He had done some shopping in Vancouver and found prices of many things the same as in the East. The cost of living had decreased, he had been told, twenty five per cent. in ten years, and it seemed to him that British Columbia was a good place to live in. Some of the apparent evils to commerce would be wiped out by the levelling process and the law of necessity, while others could be remedied or modified as much as possible by legislation.

THE PUBLIC MEETING.

At the opera house, in the evening, the Ministers were presented with an address signed by the Mayor and Clerk on behalf of the citizens. Hon. Mr. Foster spoke for two hours and at the conclusion said it was not possible for an audience to be more attentive. The brilliant prospects of British Columbia were touched upon, and the growth of the entire country demonstrated by figures. A most eloquent appeal was made for the Liberal-Conservative party, the people listening with the keenest attention. He spoke of the Behring Sea trouble as demonstrating that it was better for Canada not to go it alone for a long time yet. Sixty-five millions of people had said to five million, "Get out of the Sea, or I'll seize you." Lord Salisbury wrote Mr. Blaine a letter. "Mr. Blaine, please leave the Canadian schooners alone, and the U. S. did leave them alone." His concluding words were, "Let us stick to our emblems, the Maple Leaf and Beaver, and to the grand old flag that has a thousand years braved the battle and the breeze." Mr. Angers followed in an effective speech and was well received.
